

GBRMPA Swing Moorings Pumpkin Island

International Coastal management was contracted by Reef Magic Cruises to design swing moorings for Pumpkin Island. The client requested a 3 point anchor design due to the limited plant available on the island. The moorings were designed in accordance with the Great Barrier Reef Marine Park Authority (GBRMPA) requirements. The efficient light weight design resulted in significant savings for the client during the installation process.

Date

2010

Location

Pumpkin Island,
Great Barrier Reef,
Australia

Client

Reef Magic Cruises

Contact

Tim North

Scope

- Design
- RPEQ Certification