

OVATION!

Nomination Form

Recognizing educators who are leading teacher-driven change in their classrooms, schools and communities.

SEVEN FACTORS

1. Student Centered
2. Work Oriented
3. Student Relations
4. Results Oriented
5. School Wide Relations
6. School-Family Relations
7. Future Oriented

Nominator's Name:
Nominator's Role:	Role: _____ <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Certificated Employee (Teacher, Psychologist, TOSA, etc.) • Classified Employee (CTA ESP) • Administrator (Director, Coordinator, Principal, Assistant Principal, etc.) • Student/Parent/Family Member • Community Member • Other
Ovation! CTA Member Nominee Name:
Nominee's School:
Which strength(s) does this teacher embody? Please check all that apply:
	1. Student Centered: Emphasis is placed on learning over teaching.
	2. Work Oriented: Work is a valued, purposeful, and relevant to students.
	3. Student Relations: Students view other students as supportive and interested in their well-being.
	4. Results Oriented: Students understand strength-based thinking increases capacity and resilience to achieve goals
	5. School-Wide Relations: All school stakeholders are responsible for the education of each student.
	6. School-Family Relations: Parents as a strong partner in the teaching and learning process are encouraged to be involved in their child's education.
	7. Future Oriented: Students have a dramatic, positive image of the future.
How does this educator embody the strength(s) you selected?	