

2025 MEMBERSHIP RENEWAL Thetis Island Community Association

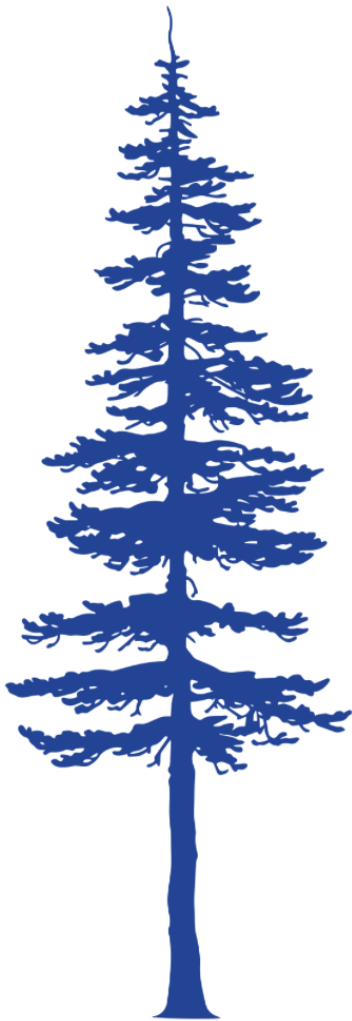

Thetis Island Community Association

The Thetis Island Community Association owns Forbes Hall Community Centre, its surrounding grounds, sports court and children's playground. The Hall includes the Health Care Station, Library, multi-use areas, commercial kitchen facilities, public access WiFi and EV Charging Station. The Health Care Station provides a Nurse Practitioner Clinic as well as other Health Care professional services. Forbes Hall is also the designated Emergency Shelter for Thetis Island offering islanders respite from extreme heat, other severe weather conditions and power outages. All these facilities are maintained for the enjoyment and use of all islanders and visitors.

TICA, a registered BC Society with CRA charitable status, is supported solely through annual membership fees, fundraising and donations.

TICA receives no funding from taxation.

How to Renew Your Membership

There are three ways to renew your annual membership:

- Through TICA's secure website (recommended). Go to forbeshall.ca/become-a-member. Scroll down to Join or Renew and select either the Household Membership or Individual Membership. You can submit your payment and your renewal form quickly and easily.
- Through E-transfer to deposit@forbeshall.ca. Mail your completed membership form (on reverse of this letter) to TICA, Box 140, Thetis Island, BC VoR 2Y0 or complete the online form at forbeshall.ca/become-a-member.
- Through the mail. Complete the membership form on reverse and mail with your cheque to TICA, Box 140, Thetis Island, BC, VoR 2Y0 or complete the online form at forbeshall.ca/become-a-member.

If you would like to make a donation, you can include it with your renewal fee. TICA issues tax receipts for all donations over $25.

Even if you do not use the services TICA provides, the availability of these services makes Thetis Island a better place to live or visit.

The TICA Board of Directors thanks you for your continued support of the Forbes Hall Community Centre.
