FROM THE DESK OF FR. MIKE

Prior to Thanksgiving, the parish was invited to help Catholic Charities with a Diaper Drive. Because of your generosity and care for our sisters and brothers in the Lord, the Catholic Charities Diaper Depot in November was supported by parishioners who gave over 3,000 diapers and $300 in donations. Thanks for your generous support to families of young children. I shared with you in November that there would be a diaper drive in the New Year. If you are able, you are invited to support the success of the 13th Annual Ted's Diaper Drive January 21st – February 11th.

You can help in the following ways:

1. Pray for the success of the Ted's Diaper Drive and for all families with young children.
2. Porch drop-off any time at the following locations:
Church of St. Mary Parish Center;
Elizabeth Simutis 280 Hickory Ct., Lake Bluff – 847.401.5322;
or Annie Pezza 617 E. Prospect Ave., Lake, Bluff – 847.235.2027.
3. Place an Amazon™ order to either of the Lake Bluff addresses above.
4. Make a monetary donation directly payable to Catholic Charities Diaper Depot and mail it to either location. You will receive a tax donation letter from the Diaper Depot. Please indicate Ted's Diaper Drive on the memo line.

How do you know God loves you? How do you celebrate the love God has for you? Parents, teachers, catechists, family members, and priests help pass on the faith to the younger generation.

You may recall the words of the lyrics, of the song, Yes, Jesus Loves Me. To help jog your memory here are the words of the first verse and refrain - Jesus loves me this I know; For the Bible tells me so; Little ones to Him belong; They are weak but He is strong . . . and the refrain - Yes Jesus loves me; Oh, yes Jesus loves me; Yes Jesus loves me for the Bible tells me so.

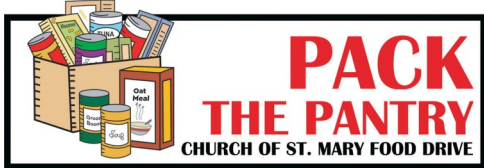

Our second graders are preparing to celebrate God's love for them in two of the beautiful sacraments of the Catholic Church, the Sacrament of Reconciliation and the Sacrament of Holy Communion. On Saturday, January 20th and 27th our second graders and their families are celebrating God's healing and forgiving love in the sacrament of reconciliation. I invite you to pray that our children grow up knowing a loving God who wants to help them in their struggles, overcome their temptations, and forgive them of their sins. May all in the Church trust in God's redeeming love, God's healing love shared in the sacrament of reconciliation.

Our second graders will come to the altar to share their First Holy Communion later this year, on April 28th. Thanks to Mrs. Jeannie Brunk, our Director of Religious Education, for working with the school and religious education families preparing the students for these joyous celebrations of faith.

Thank you for your monetary support to Most Blessed Trinity this weekend in the Second Collection.

Next weekend is the "Pack the Pantry" for our Sharing Parish, Most Blessed Trinity. Thanks for helping us reach and exceed the goal of 300 bags of household items and groceries.

God be with you with a joyous and renewed faith.

sponsored by the Church of St. Mary Men's Club January 27/28

Readings for the Third Week in Ordinary Time

Monday, January 22, 2018

2 Sm 5:1-7, 10; Ps 89; Mk 3:22-30

Day of Prayer for the Legal Protection of Unborn Children

David grew steadily more powerful, for the Lord of hosts was with him. David's advancement to Israel's throne and his establishment as king lay entirely with his reliance on God. David reached greatness and occupied his place of prosperity for so long through God's choice and help. David rightly acknowledged the divine grace that paved every step of his journey. From the start when the Lord proclaimed that the shepherd boy would grow great before his subjects and his enemies, David trusted, obeyed and consulted God. David had the Lord's favor, but he gave voice to his understanding of how God's presence and help were integral to his success. We, too, must acknowledge the vital role that the Lord plays in our achievements. All knowing and supporting Father, backbone and strength of everything we do, thank you for elevating us to the greatness to which each of us has been called.

Tuesday, January 23, 2018

2 Sm 6:12b-15, 17-19; Ps 24; Mk 3:31-35

Then David, girt with a linen apron, came dancing before the Lord with abandon... Imagine everyone giving with the utter joy and lavishness of David's sacrifice. While David clearly had wealth to support such extravagance, his offerings to the Lord were generous even for his means. He went beyond offering praise for the Lord, including plentiful provisions for the entire assembly. Everyone shared in David's grand offering of bread, roast meat and raisin cake. His generosity had less to do with his vast resources than with the great pleasure and enthusiasm of his giving. We may not have David's wealth, but our financial circumstances should have little effect on our mindset regarding providing for the church and each other. Even if we can't have David's wealth, nothing holds us back from sharing his attitude. Generous and cheerful Lord, lovingly accept my gifts as I dance and rejoice in offering all I have to you.

Wednesday, January 24, 2018

2 Sm 7:4-17; Ps 89; Mk 4:1-20

Saint Francis de Sales, Bishop and Doctor of the Church

I will fix a place for my people Israel. David is misguided initially on how the Lord desires him to build his house. When David talks to Nathan about building a temple for the ark of the Lord, that night the Lord enlightens Nathan on what it means to build the house of David. God doesn't desire a house or temple for himself. He wants David to build a lasting dynasty. The Lord seeks to secure a place for his people where they can flourish undisturbed for generations to come. The Lord does not want him to erect physical structures but to raise leaders. The sanctuary in which the Lord desires to dwell already exists. He seeks to reside within us, in the temple of our own bodies. Welcome, Lord. Be my constant companion. I delight in your dwelling within me.

Thursday, January 25, 2018

Acts 22:3-16; Ps 117; Mk 16:15-18

Feast of the Conversion of St. Paul

Now, why delay? Even when we know what's in our best interest, procrastination, uncertainty or laziness can keep us from doing what's truly good and right. It's pretty easy to sit back and do nothing, but our baptism calls us to take action. Jesus asks us to embrace him and his forgiveness for our own benefit. Our disinterest or seeming lack of urgency delays our inviting the glory of God to be at work within us. With that said, our acceptance of the expectations that come with being Christ's followers cannot be taken lightly. Baptism for the apostles was not just a ceremony. It demanded extraordinary prayer and preparation. They had to fully commit, and maybe that's the real question at hand. Do we tarry because we're unwilling to truly change? Persistent Savior, gently push me to call on you when I resist your loving gifts of holiness and mercy.

Friday, January 26, 2018

2 Tm 1:1-8; Ps 96; Mk 4:26-34

Saints Timothy and Titus, Bishops

With many such parables he spoke the word to them as they were able to understand it. A good rule for any public speaker is to know the audience. Jesus adapted his language for the needs of those assembled. He used simple everyday images, gently and cautiously leading them. The familiar language was interesting without being threatening. If Jesus simply exposed their flaws and need to change, they may have walked away. He couldn't speak directly because the people weren't ready for the challenging reality of his message. Those able to seek a deeper meaning under the seemingly plain illustrations slowly came in their own time to realize how the parables called them to accept Jesus and to acknowledge him as the Messiah. Thank you, gentle Jesus, for taking the time to reveal your divine truth to me in a way I can intimately know you.

Saturday, January 27, 2018

2 Sm 12:1-7a, 10-17; Ps 51; Mk 4:35-41

Teacher, do you not care that we are perishing?" In times of war, famine or disaster, we say that God surely is absent. How else can such horror and ugliness go unchecked? We assume God has abandoned us. When the disciples cry out to awaken Jesus, they reveal this mindset. All they see is immediate danger. The Lord has left them to fend for themselves. When we're powerless we cannot comprehend a God, whose love cannot be separated from us. We drown in doubt. When we question the Lord's commitment to us, we're not even crying out to a sleeping Jesus; rather, we're lashing out at what we imagine is an empty stern. There's no question about the Lord's commitment to us. Our great peril lies in our inability to recognize that we're the ones who've abandoned ship. Steadfast Savior, strengthen my faith so that I may reach for you in times of trouble.

School of St. Mary

A Roman Catholic School Since 1917

Dear St. Mary Parishioners,

Please join us for our Open Houses on Sunday, January 28, 2018. Information and student-led tours will be available at both the Primary Grade Center (pre-K – 3rd grades), 900 W. Everett Road, and the Upper Grade Center (4th – 8th grades), 185 E. Illinois Road, from 8:30am to 1:30pm. The Open Houses, together with student speakers at Sunday Mass, will kick-off Catholic Schools Week, our annual celebration of what makes education at School of St. Mary outstanding. A whole week of activities are planned to showcase what our students are accomplishing and to celebrate the community we have built to educate tomorrow's citizens and church leaders.

The theme of Catholic Schools Week is “Catholic Schools: Learn. Serve. Lead. Succeed.” This theme encompasses the core products and values that can be found in Catholic schools across the country. Not only are we teaching students to become future servant leaders, faith-filled disciples and enriched citizens in our communities, educators are growing with them. In Catholic schools, we are all learners, servants and leaders. These shared qualities are what make Catholic schools work. They are what make Catholic schools succeed. The theme also focuses on key elements of Catholic education: faith development, academic excellence and dedication to service. These elements set Catholic schools apart from other educational options. They are why families make sacrifices to provide their children with a Catholic education.

When you visit the school, I'm sure you'll be as proud of our students as we are. What helps make their accomplishments possible is the dedication and commitment of our teachers, staff, administrators, board members, parents and volunteers. I'm thankful for them every day, but I want to make a point—at this special time of year for Catholic schools—of publicly extending my deepest appreciation to everyone who makes our school a success.

Please stop by the School of St. Mary on January 28 during the Open Houses and see how our students embrace their faith development, excellent education and dedication to service. Please bring your friends and neighbors, particularly those who may be considering Catholic education for their children.

Stewardship is...

...EVERYTHING we think, say, and do after we say "I believe"

“Follow me and I will make you fishers of men.” MARK 1:17

Jesus’ call to “Follow me” is a call to all Christians! The call is in the here and now, in our present circumstances, not when we think we are “ready” or have everything in order. Good stewardship of our God-given gifts means that things aren’t always going to go according to our schedule and that God has a much better plan in store for each of us.
