

ADRIANNA PAPELL

Adrianna Papell was founded in NYC in 1980, is distributed globally to leading retailers, specialty stores, and boutique businesses in the United States; it has expanded its business across 27 countries, establishing a formidable global presence and is fast increasing its brand recognition.

Our goal is to provide an exquisite sense of style, a dream fit, carefully edited fabrics and meticulous craftsmanship. We got our start creating soft silk dresses and blouses in artful prints and we quickly grew from daytime and occasion dresses to elegant evening and cocktail wear. Our collections are imbued with a sense of elegance and strength that empowers and inspires women of all ages, sizes and backgrounds on their most memorable occasions to feel confident and comfortable. Each piece we make is designed with purpose and perspective, creativity and dedication. We celebrate life's most important moments by honoring the women who experience them and we strive to wear life beautifully each day—with joy, optimism, warmth and true style.

At Lee Roski we offer Adrianna Papell Day & Evening, as well as a Reorder Program, a great option for Bridesmaids and Special Orders!
