Urban Stages welcomes Idris Goodwin's play Bars and Measures to our stage. We have been following Goodwin since we held a reading of his dark comedy Blackademics in 2015. His three-character play Hype Man was also a particular favorite of mine last year. Mr. Goodwin has a gift of bringing music into his plays almost as another character. It is a pleasure to produce a playwright who creates well-defined and complexed characters and explores diverse ideas that spring to life on stage.

We are currently putting the final touches on our Winter Rhythms music series returning for its 11th year: December 11th-20th. Lastly, we will soon announce our spring MainStage production beginning March 2020.

urbanstages.org to stay in the know.

KRISTAN SEEMEL (Director), grew up in the theater working on new plays, serving as dramaturg on a score of premiere productions and developmental workshops in Portland, Oregon where he worked for almost a decade. He is passionate about new writing and his directing projects include the recent premieres of HYPE MAN by Idris Goodwin, Mary-Kate Olsen is in Love by Mallery Avidon and The Electric Lighthouse by Ed Himes (all at The Flea). Other new plays Kristan has directed include Mutt by Lava Alapai (Many Hats Collective) and The Verspiary by Matthew Zrebski (Stark Raving Theatre) as well as NW regional premieres of Carlos Murillo's Mimesophobia (Sand & Glass Productions), The Long Christmas Ride Home by Paula Vogel (TheatreVertigo) and Mac Wellman's A Murder of Crows (defunkt theatre). Kristan also assisted on the recent Flea premieres of NSangou Njikam's Syncing Ink and A. R. Gurney's Ajax. Recent favorite revivals include Bad Penny by Mac Wellman (The Flea), Brecht & Weill's The Threepenny Opera and Hamlet (CoHo Productions). Kristan's staging of Gertrude Stein's Doctor Faustus Lights the Lights (defunkt theatre) garnered him a Portland Dramatic Critics Circle award for Outstanding Direction. In New York, Kristan has developed new plays at Playwrights Horizons/Clubbed Thumb (Superlab), the Lark and Target Margin Theater. He is an Associate Artist at Tribeca's own Flea Theater and a graduate of Brown/Trinity Rep.

FRANK J. OLIVA (Scenic Designer) is a Cuban-American Stage Designer. With Urban Stages: Dogs of Rwanda, A Deal, Angry Young Man and Communion. Recent work include world premieres and new productions at Cincinnati Symphony, The Contemporary American Theatre Festival, Guild Hall, Two River Theatre Company, UP Theatre Company, and others. Associate Designer on projects for Broadway, Lincoln Center Theatre, St. Ann’s Warehouse, Atlantic Theatre Company, Signature Theatre, and more. Forthcoming designs include new productions of Street Scene (Mannes School) and The Roommate (Kitchen Theatre). Winner of the 2017 Innovative Theatre Award for Stage Design and a 2018 Audelco Award nominee for Best Stage Design. His work will be featured at the 2019 Prague Quadrennial of Performance Design & Space. BFA:NYU. www.frankjoliva.com

SARAH LAWRENCE (Costume Designer) A graduate of Parson's The New School for Design, Sarah is a Brooklyn based artist, costume designer, and musician. While pursuing her design degree and creating her own sustainable hand-crafted fashion line (www.gravexsl.com). Sarah found her way into theater as Assistant Costume Designer for Thomas Bradshaw's Fulfillment produced by The Flea Theater in the fall of 2015. She has since designed shows such as Witness Relocation's The Loon (Dir Daniel Schaefer, 2016), New York Times Critics Pick Inanimate (written by Nick Robidou, Dir Courtney Ulrich, 2017), and Goodspeed Musical's Cyrano (Dir Erica Schmidt, 2018); as well as performing in the freaky feminist folk music duo, Pretty Polly (@prettypolly). Sarah is thrilled to work with Urban Stages on Bars and Measures!

JOHN SALUTZ (Lighting Designer) is a New York based Lighting and Sound Designer. His work has been seen and heard in New York at the York Theatre Co., Ensemble Studio Theatre, Urban Stages, Queens Theatre in the Park, the Tank, Hard Sparks, Atlantic Acting School, Stella Adler Studio of Acting, as well as regionally at Wellfleet Harbor Actors Theater, Connecticut Ballet, Argyle Theatre, ACT of Connecticut, Opera North NH, Southeastern Regional Ballet Association, Centenary Stage Co., Southeast Alabama Dance Co., and Provincetown Theater. KIM T. SHARP (Technical Director) works regularly with Urban Stages in their efforts to champion new works by artists of diverse cultural backgrounds. He served as Associate Artistic Director and Literary Manager for Abingdon Theatre
Company for 16 seasons. As a director and literary consultant, he continues to work with theatre artists to bring unique and vitalizing material to the stage. Thanks to Frances for this opportunity as well as to Kristan, the cast, the designers, stage managers and entire staff at Urban Stages for their time and talent to present the NYC premiere of Idris’ intriguing script.

REBECCA KANE (Production Stage Manager)’s favorite previous stage management credits include A Deal (also at Urban Stages) and 90210! The Musical! She has worked with numerous other companies, shows, and festivals in New York City, including The Tank, Hey Jonte! Productions, the Juilliard School, Third Rail Projects, Atlantic Theater Company, and The Telling Company. Other work credits include Marquee Merchandise and StarQuest International Dance Competition. She is also a playwright with numerous performances at The Tank and various theatre festivals in the city, and she spent time this summer in residency on Governor’s Island with Rising Sun Performance Company.

MADELEINE BURROW (Assistant Stage Manager) recently graduated from Fordham University where she worked on a multitude of productions with The Mimes and Mummers Theater Troupe and Fordham Experimental Theatre. Some of her favorite credits include lighting design for The Addams Family, and set design for Noises Off. She also worked at the New Ohio Theater's Ice Factory Festival where she enjoyed working on Antigravity Performance Project's Dear Diary LOL.

VINCENT SCOTT (Assistant Director) is a New York based director who has directed in New York as well as in Los Angeles, Chicago, London and Ireland. Recently his assistant directing credits include: The Last Will, directed by Austin Pendleton, Hellman vs McCathy, directed by Jan Buttram, Changes of the Heart, directed by Timothy Douglas and Death of a Driver, directed by Kim T. Sharp. He is also an educational consultant at Urban Stages. He is a member of SDC.
ABOUT URBAN STAGES

Urban Stages' mission is to champion new works by artists of diverse cultural backgrounds and to make these works available to all.

We do this by discovering and nurturing artists through our DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM, investing in artists by producing new works on our MAINSTAGE, and by touring artists, admission-free plays/workshops and more via our OUTREACH PROGRAM!

Urban Stages give talents resources to address the multi-faceted issues facing our contemporary world and develop their gifts. Through us, plays make noticeable and lasting entries into the theatrical landscape often going on to publication or productions at larger venues.

We have been honored with awards, nominations and recognition from the Drama Desk, Obie Awards, Audelco, Outer Critics Circle and much more. For instance, our world premiere of the musical Langston In Harlem by Walter Marks (music and book) and Kent Gash (book and direction) garnered a Drama Desk Nomination, a Joe A. Calloway award and 4 Audelco awards including Best Musical Production of 2010. Our 2014 spring premiere of Jim Brochu Character Man was nominated for a Drama Desk and an Outer Critics Circle award for Best Solo performance. Honky (2013) by Greg Kalleres saw a regional run at San Diego Rep and was later broadcast on PBS. Bill Bowers has toured the United States and the world with his two Urban Stages premieres blending mime and theatre – Beyond Words (2012) and Under A Montana Moon (2002)! A Deal (2017) world premiered at Urban Stages and went on to tour throughout China in Mandarin. Death of a Driver by Will Snider (2019) transferred to a regional production immediately after its Urban Stages' world premiere.

In addition to plays and musicals, annually we hold a music festival - WINTER RHYTHMS - that features famous and up-and-coming musical artists. The festival has received the 2015 Ruth Kurtzman Benefit Series Award, the 2016 Bistro Award for Best Benefit Series, a Time Out Critic's Pick, a feature in Cabaret Scenes and other recognitions of excellence.
Outreach is our 28-year-old program providing high-quality theater and art resources on and off our Off-Broadway stage. Our mission with Outreach is to provide equal access to the arts, engage different demographics and create multicultural educational works.

Every year, we hold over 200 events throughout all 5 boroughs of NYC. We have a repertoire of 20+ multi-cultural programs, ranging from plays that explore science, plays that spotlight historical figures as well as dance and mime workshops. Each show caters to specific age groups, from toddlers to families to Adult Learners. Many of the neighborhoods we reach (and return to multiple times) have little to no theatre and arts programming. We are even the first theatrical experience for some. Our programs travel mainly to libraries and non-profit organizations. They are all admission-free for patrons. For artists, our Outreach Program offers paid opportunities. We commission plays, pay royalties and fees, allowing writers and artists to be working artists.

Under the Outreach Umbrella are our art residencies. We are able to offer extended theater and art related residencies for weeks to months at a time to places like senior citizens centers, community centers and schools. In the past, we offered programming to LGBTQ homeless centers, centers helping women reclaim their lives after incarceration and drug abuse, and various non-profit agencies. Finally, annually we hold a Summer Theater Camp for children 10–15 years old. Professionals teach our campers about all aspects of theatre and the campers collaborate on an original musical. We offer partial scholarships making our camp more accessible.

Cabanon is a word well-known in the South of France, meaning a hut in a garden, a place to cook, eat, talk and drink. That spirit is recreated right here in NYC.

A rustic yet modern French restaurant & wine bar serving creative plates, tapas, charcuterie and natural wines.
